

LET'S PLAY

Trebas is pleased to introduce Howard Rosen Executive Producer as the head of our Film and Television Production and Digital Video Post Production programs.

Howard Rosen is a well-established producer with feature film, television and digital-media successes. In the feature film world, with Peter O'Brien, he was involved in a number of award-winning productions including distribution of "The Grey Fox", and the development/production of "One Magic Christmas" "My American Cousin" and "John and the Missus", and subsequent to those films, the black comedy darling of the film festival circuit, The Sadness Of Sex.

In the dramatic television world, in his Executive Producer/VP Business Affairs at Skyvision Entertainment, he was involved in the development, financing, production and distribution of over $100 million in programming. These projects include "Picture Windows", "Robocop: The Series", "F/X" TV pilot, "Secret Service" and "Heart of Courage". It was on the Emmy award-winning television series "Picture Windows" (Showtime) that Howard shared the Executive Producer role with Norman Jewison.

Following Skyvision, among the many television productions that he has taken from inception to completion are the staging and world-wide live broadcast of the birth of the new Territory of Nunavut, the staging and North American wide live broadcasts of the Canadian Country Music Awards 1998, 1999 and 2002 and the Ron James' The Road Between My Ears. Howard's comedy special. Digital media projects include working with clients as diverse as the Toronto Stock Exchange, BBDO, University of Toronto, Universal McCann and GlaxoSmithKline.
