Student Referral Application

The Student Referral Program is a student and alumni appreciation program that recognizes contributions made by current students and alumni to promote Trebas Institute Toronto and its programs to family and friends. Through the Student Referral Program, eligible current students/alumni will receive financial recognition for their successful efforts when a new, referred applicant starts their studies at Trebas.

Any registered student who wishes to recommend an applicant to Trebas may apply to Trebas' Student Referral Program by filling out the form below.

If the referred prospective student is eligible, registers and studies at Trebas, the referring current student/alumni will receive a payment of CAD $250.

Terms and Conditions

1. Both students (the referred and the referring) must complete and sign the Student Referral Application form with their personal and contact information.
2. The Student Referral Application form must be submitted in-person to the Trebas campus director with the Admission Application form upon application. Any Student Referral Application form submitted after the payment has been made will not be accepted. Visit the front desk at Trebas to be directed to the campus director.
3. To qualify for the program, the referred student must not have applied or been admitted to Trebas previously.
4. The e-transfer will be issued after the referred student completes one term at Trebas. After this term is completed, the amount will be e-transferred to the referrer.
5. The referred student must complete at least one semester of study at Trebas for the payment to be issued.
6. This promotion cannot be combined with any other promotion or offer.
7. The referral program will be available for applications sent by December 31, 2024, for intakes up to October 2025. Trebas reserves the right to modify, cancel and limit this promotion.
